Commentary

Jindalee's Managing Director, Pip Darvall, said:

"This is the first capital raising that Jindalee has undertaken since its listing in 2002 and will enable the Company to accelerate exploration, particularly at our McDermitt lithium project where drilling to both infill and extend mineralisation and provide samples for further metallurgical testwork is due to commence shortly.

We are excited about the potential for value creation for shareholders at both McDermitt and Widgiemooltha and look forward to updating the market as results are received.”
